brows 3 ways

Whether you want to wax, tweeze, or thread, we've found the top spots across the country to perfect any arch.

Getting your brows done by a professional is the quickest—and often most dramatic—mini-makeover out there. “The right shape makes just about anyone look so much prettier,” says New York makeup artist Nick Barose. Whether you tweeze (it’s more precise but takes longer), wax (the look is polished and it’s quick, but it can damage skin if you’re using retinoids or are very sensitive), or thread (the most painless but sometimes the least precise), here are our favorites in the following seven cities.
